You're Gonna Want a Bigger Bowl!

Chili Cook-Off Saturday, March 9 Wilma Palmer Annex

964 Barnett

There are two ways to participate in this event planned and organized by the church Activities & Events Committee:

Compete and/or Consume!

Chili Cook off COMPETITION Guidelines:

- Competition is open to members and friends of UU Church of the Hill Country, UU Fellowship, Jewish Community of the Hill Country and PFLAG.
- Entry fee is $1 per entry. Entry forms are on the table to the rear of the church sanctuary. Form(s) and fee(s) must be turned in to Judy Ashcraft or Selma Gibson at UUCHC by Sunday, March 3.
- Competitors must present Chili in a crockpot by 11am at the Annex back door on Saturday, March 9. If you don't have a crockpot, please borrow one because all chili must be kept hot.
- 4. Once judging starts, late entries will not be accepted. Judging will occur behind closed doors between 11am and 11:30am.
- 5. A list of ingredients must be posted with your chili as well as its spiciness (mild, medium, hot, superhot). Please create a chili ingredient sign which does not give your identity away (ingredients only, not recipe). Numbers will be assigned to each pot as it arrives.
- Keep your identity a secret until after all judging is completed. Making your identity known is an automatic disqualification.
- Judging will be performed by a 3 person panel.
 Panel judges will remain a secret. Judges will be introduced, after judging, at the awards announcement.

8. Five (5) awards will be given: Texas Chili (Meat Only), Best Vegetarian, Best Meat & Bean, Only Lava is Hotter, and People's Choice (by ballot). Participation ribbons will be given to all.

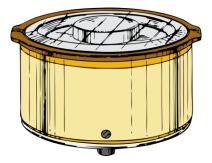

CONSUME - People's Choice - Doors open 11:45 pm Entertainment will be provided in the Sanctuary for contestants and folks who wish to come early.

How does it work?

- Get a ballot slip. There will be spoons at every pot for tasting and voting. Write the number on the ballot slip and put in the ballot 'Box'. (Throw away the spoon after each tasting.)
- 2. Decide which chili you like best and Buy a Bowl $5. Then go back and get another bowl $5.

The Ballot Box closes at 12:45pm and awards presented at 1pm. Remaining chili will be put into containers and auctioned.

All funds raised will help fund renovations to the Sunday school playground & equipment.

Ellen Bateman Cameron Roxzlaen Frances 'Cisco' Geohegan Cameron New members as of January 6

Ellen was born in Colorado City, Arizona and remained there until one week after graduating high school in order to attend college in South Carolina. Her parents were both teachers and her father continues to be.

She married to "Cisco" Cameron on May 20, 2011. Cisco is also a member of the church and will be introduced later in this column.

Ellen was raised in a Fundamentalist Mormon community. Her mother was her father's second wife in a polygamist relationship. Her father, mother Eunice (her father's first wife), and her mother left the church in the late 1990s. Her mother left the family when Ellen was ten years old. Ellen has 17 brothers and sisters.

Her father worked for the public school in Colorado City after the church pulled all of its members out to be homeschooled. After leaving the church, her father taught the remaining family to be "scientists" and referred to them as atheists. She grew up without much of a sense of family, community or faith/religion, but possesses a huge appreciation for the land, learning and hard work. In college she realizes she felt agnostic.

After serving six long and difficult years in the United States military and then having three beautiful children, Ellen longed for a sense of community and to find a way to heal some of her spiritual distrust. She had spoken to military chaplains and one mentioned Unitarian/Universalism. She found the Unitarian Universalist Church of the Hill Country after a Google search and decided to visit. After attending for a while, finding the church to be welcoming and her children excited about Sundays she explored becoming a member. She has liked the sermons and the sense of being around others who are all different, but combine together to form a church.

She wants to share that as part of a teambuilding exercises in the past she was identified as having an introverted analytical personality coined as an "advocate". She sees herself as serious, but also as one who knows how healthy a good laugh at oneself can be.

Cisco was born in Houston and reared in Texas, Tennessee, Arkansas, Oklahoma, and Mississippi. His parents have passed away, but he has two older brothers, one older sister, and a younger half-sister. They are not close.

Cisco's father was Baptist, while his mother was Presbyterian, "so the house I grew up in was a bit like living the Orange and the Green". He never cared much for 'Hellfire and Damnation" or quotes from the scripture that he feels that when checked are typically taken out of context. As a result, he quietly began exploring other paths beginning around the age of 12 and kept looking into his adulthood.

"I suppose you could say I don't think much of fear-based approaches to spirituality where the end result is people are afraid to live lives worth living," Cisco adds.

As a stay-at-home father for five years he feels that his psychology skills are well honed. When asked about ways he could possibly serve the church, Cisco offered the following: "While neither famous nor traditionally published, I can write and smith a good tale. I can cook without giving people food-poisoning and do a credible job painting." Then there's horticulture, carpentry, landscaping, diaper changing, and navigation among my skills.

He shares that his children need other voices and perspectives different than that of he and wife. He states that it's nice to step away from routine duties while letting their graces learn to explore the world a bit. He doesn't expect most people to agree with him on everything as that certainly as never happened in the past. However, he finds it has been nice to be able to discuss things with others who are open to new behaviors and opinions.

Note from the editor, Susan Lipp: I hope now that everyone has a glimmer of insight into the lives of these two interesting new members that they will take a minute to get to know them even better.
